'Bachelor' Ben Flajnik Should Have Taken Kacie's Warning Seriously

February 28, 2012 02:11 PM EST

Last night on The Bachelor, it seemed that the world saw just how stupid Ben Flajnik really is. Despite getting tons of warnings throughout the season, Ben decided to give Courtney a rose time and time again. But last night, the eliminated Kacie flew all the way to Switzerland - not to try to get him back - but to flat-out warn him about Courtney! That's right, she went out of her way, flew across the world and decided to face the man who dumped him to tell him that the woman he was with just the night before is not the right one for him.

Hollywood Life writer Lindsey Dimattina couldn't agree more with Kacie's warning! "Bad idea, Ben," Lindsey writes when discussing giving Courtney a rose over Nicki. He should have listened to Kacie's warning when she said "I feel like if you choose Courtney, you will get your heart broken." It is a straight-forward warning, but he couldn't seem to understand it. Since he had doubts and the women are warning him, one would think that it would be enough for this bachelor to send Courtney home. But no, he sent Nicki home even though she opened up to him about her feelings and desires.

"Courtney is going to leave Ben high and dry as soon as he hands her the final rose. Ben is going to face a worse heartbreak than he ever felt when Ashley Hebert rejected his proposal last season," writes Lindsey. "Courtney's heartless and ruthless tactics will destroy Ben. Again, she lied to him when she told him that she feared losing him. She knew exactly what he wanted to hear and spewed out everything she could think of to convince him that she's true." And this writer hit the nail on the head; Courtney is chasing fame and she could care less about Ben's feelings, yet he is putting everything on the line to find love, get married and start a family.

Could Lindsey's predictions for Ben and Courtney be correct?
