Video: The Bachelor finale preview

The finale of The Bachelor starring Ben Flajnik airs tonight on ABC. While many consider it a foregone conclusion that bachelor Ben chooses villain Courtney Robertson, there are still plenty of reasons to tune in, including these top ten.

- The spectacular scenery of Switzerland. While most finales of The Bachelor or The Bachelorette end up in a tropical location, tonight's finale takes place in Zermatt Switzerland, high in the snowy peaks of the soaring Alps.
- Lindzi says she's nothing like Courtney. Lindzi arrives first at the chalet and makes a great first impression. The two lovebirds enjoy an adventurous day of skiing the Swiss Alps. When Ben's sister asks Lindzi about Courtney, she admits that some women didn't get along with her, but reassures Ben's family that she is nothing like Courtney. Lindzi is a hit and the family believes she would be a great addition to their family.
- Courtney makes an impression. Despite being this season's villain, Courtney Robertson somehow manages to win over Ben's family. Ben and Courtney spend the day soaring over the summit of the Matterhorn in a helicopter and picnicking high above the snow covered Alps. When up close and personal with Ben's family, she somehow manages to win them over. Go figure.
- Ben's family weighs in. Ben reunites with his family in Switzerland, who meet the final two women. When Ben's mother and sister find out that Courtney didn't get along well with the other ladies, it immediately raises a red flag for them, but Ben pleads with them to keep an open mind.
- Ben breaks down. With his search for his soul mate almost over, emotions run high and Ben breaks down while talking to Chris Harrison about his ultimate choice. It may be heart-wrenching to watch, but it makes for great TV.
- Two relationships, one choice. It's crunch time for Ben Flajnik. Will he choose his slowly
