

‘The Bachelor’ Top Hotel Deals

(Source: The Fairmont Sonoma Mission Inn & Spa)

Ever dreamed of living like ‘The Bachelor?’ Being flown to romantic destinations, staying in jaw-dropping hotels and seeing the world in ways which few have ever experienced? The hotel price comparison www.trivago.com has put together a list of top deals in the very same hotels where the now famously controversial couple, Ben Flajnik and Courtney Robertson lived out their love story on Season 16 of ABC’s, “The Bachelor.” Making it possible for everyone to experience their own love story, helicopters and all—without the made-for-TV drama.

As Monday nights return to normal, we can’t help reflect on all the beautiful destinations that the Bachelor ladies had the opportunity to visit throughout the course of the show. In fact, if there’s one thing that wasn’t controversial about this season of “The Bachelor,” it was the beautiful selection of four and five star hotels which were featured throughout the season. Each uniquely different from the last and always surrounded by breathtaking land and cityscapes, these one-of-a-kind hotels have shown the world that when it comes to spending a night in a hotel with the one you love, anything is possible.

1. The Grand Hotel Zermatterhof (Zermatt, Switzerland - Episode 11)

While the final episode of the Bachelor may have left viewers amazed, we have to wonder, was it Bachelor Ben's final choice which left viewers shocked or the shockingly beautiful views overlooking the Matterhorn and the Swiss Alps? Whether you agreed with his choice or not, who wouldn't have wanted to take a helicopter ride over the Matterhorn? The Grand Hotel Zermatterhof had exactly the same thought, which is why the magnificent, highly-traditional establishment has included a helicopter flight around the Matterhorn within their special, "Romantic Getaway" package. Other features included in the 'Getaway' include a Horse-carriage transfer upon arrival and departure, as well as a bottle of Dom Perignon and red roses in the room.
